

La Bri Cabernet 2009 – a 5 Star Wine

Following on from our Trophy for Best Merlot at the Old Mutual Trophy wine show 2012, La Bri is proud to announce that our Cabernet Sauvignon 2009 received an incredible 5 star rating and was awarded first place by The Christian Eedes Cabernet Sauvignon Report 2013.

The Top 10 Cabernet Sauvignons were revealed yesterday, 23 May 2013, at a lunch time function held at Burrata, The Old Biscuit Mill, Woodstock.

“Refined, subtle and truly complex ...” is how the panel describes this bespoke wine from La Bri, a boutique estate nestled in the picturesque Franschhoek valley. The grapes for this wine are grown on the Estate in Franschhoek and only 4200 bottles were made.

This year sees the second annual Christian Eedes Cabernet Sauvignon Report. A total of 60 wines competed in a blind tasting. The judging panel was chaired by Christian Eedes, along side Roland Peens and James Pietersen.

The report is compiled by Eedes himself in collaboration with Sanlam Private Investments (SPI), and aims to establish a recognised benchmark for Cabernet Sauvignon. To view the full Christian Eedes Cabernet Sauvignon report 2013 visit:
